REPORT

Date November 15, 10 38

Subject Article in "Slovo" of 23-10-38 containing false information regarding movements of criminals - editor interviewed.

Made by D.S.I. Prokofiev.

Forwarded by C. Chart & A

hr. V. Vale, editor of newspaper "Slovo" was communicated with by 'phone on November 15 . He was given to understand that publication of deliberately fabricated news such as article in question, is highly undesirable from the police viewpoint. In reply Mr. Vale expressed his regrets and said that the article had been contributed by a newly entaged reporter whose reliability had not been doubted. From now on he would watch this reporter and keep the newspaper free from any cheap sensationalism.

The "Kings" of criminal workd of Europe Shanghai bound. Last night "Slovo" had received sensational information to the efrect that the "kings" of criminal world of Europe have left Europe Far East and evidently Shanghai bound, these being participants of the most outsatanding cases, of world wide repute, such, as for instance, the case of Stavitsky, etc.

of late these leaders of Europen gangsters resided in vienna, Prague and the European fashionable resorts. Amongst those who have left Europe for the Far East are three criminals, who have made for tnemselves fortunes of millions during the past 8-IO years. The outstanding ones are three, who have at least ten names each as well as different passports of various nationalities.

Amongst these three there are: Karl Schumacher, Hans-Leo Zilbeshtein and Jan Hadeskull. These men were the leaders of tremendous gangs and controlled their activities, themselves remaining always in the shade.

they are all always smartly dressed and are bringing their mistresses with them/

It is reported that the Police measures adopted by the German Authorities in vienna and other cities of former Austria, as well as the changes situation in czechoslovakia have comeppelled these "kings" of European criminals to seek "fresh sunny sports", and evidently they intend to visit shanghai under new aliases.

it is, nowever, hoped that the criminals will be disappointed in their calculations in respect of shanghai.
